Finest assortment Christmas cards at Wolfe's.

P. T. McGriff received last Monday a very valuable present from his brother-in-law, H. R. Johnson, who is spending the winter in Texas and Old Mexico, in the shape of a cane that has quite a history and is a relic well worth preserving. The cane was owned and used by General Banito Juarez during the war when Mexico was freed from French rule, and was secured after a considerable expense and trouble by Mr. Johnson. It is a beautiful cane, made of cow and buffalo horns and the handle is made of a deer's foot. Mr. McGriff prizes his present very highly.

Remember the bazaar next Thursday at Baisden's store on Howard street.

Live Oak real estate is finding a more ready market now than for sometime past. A number of sales have been made, and there is a good demand for near-in residence property. Farm property is also in demand and bringing a better price than ever before. Property that sold last year at from $3 to $8 is bringing from $10 to $12.50 per acre. New settlers are coming in and buying farms and farm lands with the intention of making Suwannee county their home.

Four elegant Christmas presents given away at Wolfe's.

J. E. Lowe, a successful farmer of the Pine Grove settlement, planted 11-16 acres in sea island cotton with seed furnished by the Government agent, Mr. A. S. Meharg, and picked and sold therefrom $175.00 worth of cotton and seed. This was certainly a grand yield, and demonstrates what can be done in Suwannee county with proper seed and cultivation. Mr. Lowe followed the instructions of Mr. Meharg, as near as possible in the planting and cultivation, and he is well satisfied with the results.
